“ Dear Schneider Family- I just learned of your mother's passing and I am so sorry that I missed the services. She was such a gracious lady and her legacy is all of you. I am sure she will be missed but I know you were so good to her and the memories in your hearts must be over-flowing. God Bless you and May God hold her in the palm of his hand.

“ Dear Tom, Tony, Tim, Rosemary, Alicia & Regina: I just received a phone message from Joan Mackey informing me of your mother's passing. I'm now on-line reading her obituary & it stated that she "went to heaven on her way to Mass" Saturday evening! How GREAT is that!!! She was on her way to visit Our Lord & HE said, "Come on HOME!" I'm so happy for her. I'm also so sorry that you all will miss her, but we all know she is where she has always wanted to be. She is now with her "FATHER" and your earthly Father. I am sorry that I cannot be in attendance with you tomorrow at St. Mary's. I will say a prayer for all of you tomorrow morning & think of her too. I know she prayed for me during my difficult years. I have recently sold my home in Urbana, purchased a condo in Indianapolis & began adjusting to life as a "retired" person. I feel like I have been on vacation for the past 2 months. Joan has my new address & phone number. My love & sympathies to each of you.

“ you all have my deepest sympathy in the passing of your lovely mom. she was such an inspiration to so many and lead a beautiful Christian life, so devout, holy & caring. i'll always remember her goodness.
just reading her obituary this evening I was not able to get to visitation, but I look forward to participating in the celebration of her life at the holy sacrifice of the mass tomorrow.
may god be with you and give peace at this difficult time,

“ I did not know Mrs. Schneider personally but if the character of her children is any indication of the kind of woman she was, she must have been amazing. My deepest sympathies to all of you in your loss. May the peace of Christ, which surpasses all understanding, be with each of you. See you soon.
