“ I received a call today from a childhood friend who told me Mrs. Hagar had passed away. We talked of our time when Mrs. Hagar was our girl scout leader. I remember being able to go to day camp at no cost thanks to her. I also had a winter birthday and for years I would receive a beautiful pair of gloves. Being from a poor home these gifts were priceless. A wonderful woman.... I will miss her

Thank you for sharing that with me, Susan. My mom was a very generous lady with her family and friends. She fought a hard battle twice with cancer. I admired her determination to be independent all the way to her passing. Feeling a little lost without her. I took her with me everywhere since she did not drive. She is with my dad now whom she had missed so much for 23 years. Thanks again. Hope all is well with you.
