

Candace L. "Candy" Daniels

October 14, 1952 - April 14, 2013

Candace L. "Candy" (Saylor) Daniels, 60, of Urbana, died at 10:18 a.m. on Sunday, April 14, 2013 in Springfield Regional Medical Center.

She was born in Urbana on October 14, 1952, the daughter of Grant and Agnes (Saylor) Saylor Sr. Candy was a 1970 graduate of Urbana High School, worked for 16 years at Dare Pavco and Wendy's of Urbana for 16 years. She attended Lighthouse Tabernacle, and through the years taught Sunday School, enjoyed garage sales, her animals and loved people.

The last words Jaymes heard from Candy's lips were, "Jesus please take me home!" That was so much how Candy lived her life, always giving God the Glory and praising "Jesus First" in all walks of her life. We know that today Candy's precious soul is in Heaven with her father and mother and all the children of God. Although Candy never had children of her own, she was always a loving "mother-like" figure to all her nieces and nephews. She was always available and willing to share her time with them.

Survivors include her husband of 35 years, Jaymes D. Daniels, whom she married on March 24, 1978, sisters, Connie (John) Smith of Marysville and Cathy Wells of NC, brothers, Henry (Deanna) Saylor of Urbana, Dwight Saylor of Urbana, Grant (Jean) Saylor Jr., Rick (Julie) Saylor of AL and Forrest Michael Saylor of Urbana, nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends. She was preceded in death by her parents.

The family will receive friends from 5-8 p.m. on Wednesday, April 17, 2013 in WALTER & SMITH FUNERAL HOME, 642 S. Main St., Urbana, and for one hour prior to the service which will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday, April 18, 2013 with Pastors Rick Clos and Robert Knox officiating. Burial will follow in Oak Dale Cemetery, Urbana.

“ I know its been 2 years, and your birthday just passed I missed calling you. I'm not sure who still reads this page, but your family misses you so much. People never realize how much people really mean to them until there gone. I can speak for myself only;however I know Shelb misses you just as much or more than me she has a very handsome son named Tucker I wish you could have met him, and my new addition Gracelynn. My dearest aunt you got to meet my two beautiful babies that were here before you died. I now know that you are in heaven with my two angel babies, and Collin taking care of them just like you always did us. I love, and miss you more than words could ever explain.

“ Candy was a very special person. She always seemed to take care of other people. She loved the Lord and I know she is still watching over all her loved ones from Heaven above. God needed another angel and he chose Candy. I love you and I will miss you very much. To Jim my prayers and thoughts are with you. Love Barb Woods
