“ I'm sorry to hear of your loss, my 6th grade teacher. Ironically, I was browsing through the paper and I stumbled across her obituary. Needless to say, I was saddened of the news. I have thought of her many times as I travel into Urbana passing by the house where I believe she lived (the green house on the south side of Miami Street). Every time I think of her, I chuckle, thinking of her frustrations in dealing with my ignorance. How she would stand over me countless times trying to beat in my head the lesson for the day! Wow, if my math is right that was thirty-three years ago. I'm certain she had a positive influence on my life, painful as it might have been for her :). Now, 45 with my wife of 20 years, 3 teenagers, my B.S. from OSU, and self employed, I'm certain, Mrs. Leffel's persistence many years ago has helped me along the way. She was a great teacher and will be sadly missed! My the love of Christ comfort you during your time of loss.

*With heartfelt sympathy,
Zach Stickley and family*
