“Grandma I know that u are watching over me and I really want u to know that I love u so much I try and try to be good but it just dont work for me. I love u so much I can cry that day I seen u die I feel like im not worth anything no more cause I loved u and then u had to leave like this. I cant stand the way im doing right now I just cant stand life and I wish u were still here for me during the worst times of my life.
