“ Dear Annabelle,
I am very sorry to learn of Lois's passing. She was a good friend and playmate on Storms Avenue. I can remember her with a smile on her face and always looking out for us younger(yeah right) kids. Sonny and I use to give her fits, but she always knew we were just getting on with her and she would laugh or go tell Mrs. McCain and then we would really get into trouble. Annabelle, I know it's hard to be the last one standing of your family as I am the only one left in my family, I think God knows the one that can handle the losses and who will be strong for those that leave to early. I have faith that we will all meet again in another place and we can laugh and joke and have the very best reunion and I am looking forward to that day without any regrets or worry. Please give my condolences to Lois's family members and explain who and how we know each other. I pray Lois did not suffer and I know she was a good person and will rest in the Lord's arms forever.
