“ I had only known Roger and his family of Pratts for about nine years and they are a great bunch of people and good friends. I myself will miss him coming to my shop and always asking me when I was firing up the hog cooker. He loved that bbq food. Great guy. He will be missed by many. Im honored to have known him those few short years.

“ I'll always remember Roger always saying, "I appreciate ya!" He has been my customer for several years-at McDonald's and at the bank. I'll most certainly miss him and his bright smile. Praying for the family for this loss
