“ Where do I start, I so loved her and she will be missed. We were supposed to do trick or treating this year as Twiddle dee and Twiddle dum.....Her hugs were the greatest, I so enjoyed our visitis the last few months. Although she will be missed, I know she is no longer in pain and doesn't have to worry about what the future was bringing to her as far as surgeries. She is one of the lucky ones to be with our Lord and our family members that have passed before us, now they get those heart felt hugs they have been waiting for and missing.

Love and miss you already Sharon....

“ I loved Sharon very much. She gave the best hugs anyone could ever give and was always excited to give me one when she saw me. She would look at me and say, "hi, there kiddo, I want something," we would laugh and I would say, "do you want to give me a squeeze?" and she would say, "I sure do." I will miss my word search buddy so much, but I will think of her every-time I do a word search book and remember how much we used to laugh together. My condolences to her family, and she will be greatly missed.
