“ My husband and I both work at Honeywell and will always remember Mark for his kindness and positive attitude. I was blessed to see Mark at a retirement luncheon on March 21, still smiling as he told the story behind the special gift that we gave our supervisor. We pray for peace and comfort for the family.

*Thankful for the gift of salvation,

“ I worked with Mark for a long time as a vendor, now almost 20 years. Mark has always been a great friend, and a personal supporter. Mark can take some credit, and "blame", with all his joking and prodding of my "younger self", as I would tell him about going to visit my "girlfriend" that he then assured me was going to be my wife. And he was right.

*He will be greatly missed.

“ Mark had many talents. He was always interested in music and as he grew older that music turned into a gift that he gave in restoring old theater organs. He could not only play but he knew how to make the music stay alive. He was a bright guy who gave much back to many. He will be missed.
