“ Nothing we say can bring you back. I have tons of memories of us together. We did a lot of outdoor activities together. Our biggest was fishing together all the time growing up. You would wade out onto the island at the park and I was always so scared to do it. I'm going to miss you Billy but definitely won't forget you. Til I see you again give grandma n grandpa a hug for me.

“ We played this online game called Runescape, and if you clicked on the characters and clicked follow and followed one another it looked like they were dancing. We would sit for hours some times just talking "dancing" and listening to music. Although i never got a chance to meet him in person, he was one of the greatest friends i could have had. He made a great impact on my life. Love you William!
